

*EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY***
BILINGUAL COMMUNITY EDUCATOR

---

New Jersey Citizen Action, a statewide grassroots nonprofit organization that fights for social, racial and economic justice, is hiring a full-time Bilingual Community Educator. Working under the direction of the Development Director, the Community Educator will reach out to targeted constituencies virtually and/or in-person to educate consumers on fair housing and housing discrimination and other consumer protection and financial education issues. The Community Educator will focus on virtual and in-person education and outreach to low- and moderate-income communities across the state, providing consumers with information and resources on various consumer financial protection issues.

Examples of work:

1. Contact community groups, labor unions, social service agencies, tenant associations, faith-based organizations, civil rights groups, disability rights organizations, and organizations representing Hispanic and other immigrant populations to schedule free English- and Spanish-language consumer education and outreach workshops, presentations and/or outreach events. Events will be virtual and/or in-person and conducted in accordance with all public health guidelines.
2. Confirm presentations and obtain relevant workshop information.
3. Provide organizations with necessary materials prior and/or on the day of presentations or events (fliers, bios, background info, etc.).
4. Coordinate and conduct presentations on various consumer financial protection issues, including fair housing, housing discrimination, predatory lending, foreclosure prevention, financial education and other issues.
5. Educate and inform consumers on NJCA's program and services, consumer resources, and other relevant consumer protection issues.
6. Develop and update a database of statewide organizational contacts.
7. Complete all reports, administrative forms, and consumer education workshop log as required for grant reports.
8. Maintain files with all relevant presentation/event administrative forms and paperwork (e.g., workshop verification forms, agendas, questionnaires, workshop surveys & evaluations, etc.).
9. Work with other NJCA staff and participate in organizational events and activities as required.

Knowledge and abilities:

1. Excellent oral and written communication skills, especially public speaking.
2. Ability to conduct outreach virtually, telephonically and in person (in English & Spanish a plus).
3. Ability to be self-directed, develop and maintain priorities and conduct multiple tasks in a given timeframe.
4. Ability to develop contacts and schedule presentations, workshops, and/or participate in events.
5. Exceptional time management and planning expertise.
6. General computer skills, including familiarity with Microsoft Office (e.g., MS Word, Excel, Outlook), and other word processing and database applications.
7. Familiarity with digital and virtual outreach tools a plus, including coordinating Zoom, WebEx, and Facebook Live events, among others.
8. Ability to become proficient in the areas of fair housing and financial literacy (e.g., credit, predatory lending, basic banking, budgeting, homeownership, foreclosure prevention, and consumer protection issues).

Required education and experience:

1. Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university (life experience may be substituted for education on a year-by-year basis)
2. Experience working with low- and moderate-income individuals and communities
3. Bi-lingual in English and Spanish a plus (i.e., proficiency in oral and written language skills).
4. Outreach staff must have their own car, valid NJ driver's license, and insurance.
5. Ability to work some nights and/or weekend hours as needed to accommodate event schedules.

Compensation:

Competitive salary ranging from $35,500 - $40,500 with comprehensive health care, dental, vacation, and other benefits. Position based in our downtown Newark office, although may work remotely, working closely with Development Director, depending on public health guidelines.
